

Press release

New service support from ArtSystems

ArtSystems is delighted to announce that the company has taken over the warranty support for Summa signage products (bought after 1 May 2003), including the range of vinyl cutters and the DC3 print and cut solution.

Additional services available include:

- initial installation
- basic and enhanced training courses
- ad hoc technical support.

ArtSystems Technical Manager Howard Turnnidge, who has over 20 years' experience of working with Summa products, said: "We have a skilled team of engineers qualified to provide a high quality service.

"As a value added distributor for Summa, we already have a full understanding of the products and the software that drives them, putting us in a perfect position to provide this warranty support.

"Customers have high expectations – rightly so, as they get used to the quality and reliability of Summa products – and we're here to ensure their expectations are consistently fulfilled."

For full details of this and other technical support services offered by ArtSystems please call 0115 943 1404.
