'Outstanding performance' by ArtSystems

ArtSystems has been announced Contex Distributor of the Year 2003. The award was presented at the Contex international distributor conference in Hamburg.

Wide format scanning product specialists Jon Jordan and Terence Logan have 17 years' collective experience in Contex scanners and are backed up by a dedicated team of internal sales, customer services and logistics to give an outstanding service.

Jon Jordan said: "As a value added distributor we really appreciate our good working relationship with Contex and feel this award reflects that. We're looking forward to growing with Contex throughout 2003 and beyond, developing both sales and markets for their world class products."

Contex Scanning Technology is the leading manufacturer of wide-format colour and monochrome scanners and an innovative developer of advanced scan and copy software for these products.

Contex and ArtSystems create complete solutions for CAD, GIS, reprographics, print-for-pay, POP/exhibit providers, sign and billboard production, pre-press, architecture and engineering offices, document archival and many more
